LINEAGE:

Unknown Lineage
Hybrid

TERPENES:

Limonene, Linalool, Ocimene

FLAVOR & AROMA:

Citrusy, floral and slightly tropical

DESCRIPTION:

A mysterious hybrid known only for one thing: serious terpene production, and specifically its limonene content. Limonene is the compound that provides the "gas" in most strains, but depending on what it is paired with, it can be sweet, sharp, or light and citrusy.

In this case, the added ocimene and linalool content pushes this one towards the sweet citrusy, and floral side. This Hybrid varietal may be uplifting and clear-headed for most users and can be utilized nearly any time of day for a change of perspective.
