LINEAGE:

Sunset Sherbert x Sundae Driver

Indica-dominant

TERPENES:

Limonene, β -Caryophyllene, Myrcene

FLAVOR & AROMA:

Gassy with notes of creamy fruit

DESCRIPTION:

The eye-catching mint green colored flowers of Sundae Sunset #00 appear to be covered in morning frost due to its copious amounts of resin glands. This phenotype leans more Sundae Driver than Sherbert but still displays some beautiful violet undertones.

Nicely aromatic, it unleashes a gas-forward scent with notes of creamy fruit and pine when squeezed or broken apart. This one is a versatile choice suitable for any time of day.
